CHARLOTTE READY FOR SERVICE Yesterday the Chesapeake Line steamer Charlotte left Newport News for Baltimore. She has been at the works of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company for two months to receive new engine beds and a thorough overhauling. Mr. M. V. O'Neal is adjusting the compasses of the Charlotte on the trip to Baltimore.

FROM STEAMER TO BARGE.

FROM STEAMER TO BARGE.

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun says:
"The old sidewheel steamer George Leary has been transformed into a barge by Charles Rhode & Son at their ship-yard, off Boston street. The Leary, after the machinery had been removed by John Roney, was sold by him to Francis C, Robinson, who had the change made. Collector Stone gives notice in the Sun to-day that Mr. Robinson has been permitted to change the name from George Leary to Josephine, As a barge Mr. Robinson will use the Josephine for cargoes of lumber or other freight offering from Chesapeake Bay ports through inland waterways, The Josephine has been calked and strengthened and living apartments for crew placed upon her."
